2020 Deer Archery Hunting Season Opens September 26

The 2020 deer archery-only hunting season opens statewide in Tennessee on Saturday, Sept. 26. The archery-only season dates are the same statewide Sept. 26-Oct. 30 and Nov. 2-6. You can use archery equipment at any time during the statewide deer season that runs through Jan. 3, 2021.

There are ample opportunities for deer hunters in Tennessee looking for public land to hunt. There are more than 100 wildlife management areas and refuges across the state open at various times for hunting. Find area specific regulations at <http://www.eregulations.com/tennessee/hunting/>. Hunters are reminded that they must possess the appropriate licenses and permits. Specific regulations and license requirements do apply. Private lands are also available for hunting. For hunting on private land, hunters must obtain permission from landowners.

The 2020-21 Tennessee Hunting and Trapping Guide contains all the information for hunters. Guides are available where hunting and fishing licenses are sold and on the TWRA website, www.tn-wildlife.org, and the TWRA On the Go app.

The antlerless deer bag limits for the archery-only season are four in Units A-D and three per day in Unit L and Unit CWD. The antlered deer bag limit is a total of two for the entire 2020-21 deer seasons. In Unit CWD, the statewide limit may be exceeded if taken under the Earn-A-Buck Program or taken under the Replacement Buck Program. Unit CWD consists of the counties of Chester, Crockett, Fayette, Gibson, Hardeman, Haywood, Lauderdale, Madison, McNairy, Shelby, and Tipton. COMMISSIONER GONZALES ANNOUNCES WEEKLY FORMULA RATE SEPTEMBER 22, 2020

Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions Commissioner Greg Gonzales announced today that the maximum effective formula rate of interest in Tennessee is 7.25 percent per annum.

The rate is based on a ceiling of 4 percent over the weekly average prime loan rate of 3.25 percent as published by the Federal Reserve on September 21, 2020.

Commissioner Gonzales said the rate remains in effect until the average prime loan rate as announced by the Federal Reserve Bank changes.

Chapter 464, Public Acts of 1983, the legislation regulating interest rates in Tennessee, requires that the commissioner of Financial Institutions make an announcement weekly of the formula rate of interest.

On Tuesday morning Lenoir City welcomed the official beginning of a new major housing project for Lenoir City. Lenoir City Mayor Tony Aikens addressed the crowd of near 75 who came to witness the official start of a major housing development on Highway 95 at Ash Avenue that will bring in over 100 homes ranging in price from 185k to 250k. Mayor Aikens stated "we have had the big box stores back out of planned projects because we needed more rooftops and this project will indeed provide more residents and hopefully bring those larger businesses with it." On hand for the ribbon cutting was land developer Scott Davis who stated they have projects all over the east Tennessee area and the one here was one of the easiest due to the overwhelming cooperation of the elected officials in Lenoir City who were instrumental in bringing this project together. The entire project will span probably two years before completion. Mayor Aikens also addressed the traffic questions as that is a lot of traffic to pour out onto a two lane road which is a state road. Hopefully with the assistance of Representative Lowell Russell who was also in attendance the road can be widened one day. This project is under the direction of D R Horton Builders.

FY20 EDWARD BYRNE MEMORIAL ASSISTANCE GRANT (JAG) PROGRAM

- Blount County - $23,615
- City of Chattanooga - $127,295
- City of Cleveland - $35,670
- City of Johnson City - $15,895
- City of Kingsport - $22,847
- City of Knoxville (to share with Knox County) - $138,069
- Hamblen County - $12,999
- Sullivan County - $18,751
- Washington County - $10,951

“These grants will help address crime at various levels, and provide resources to protect and serve the citizens of East Tennessee more effectively. State and local law enforcement agencies can leverage these funds to purchase much needed equipment and hire more personnel, ultimately helping departments prepare for and respond to the community’s needs,” said U.S. Attorney Overbey.

The Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant (JAG) Program allows states and units of local government, including tribes, to support a broad range of activities to prevent and control crime based on their own state and local needs and conditions. Grant funds can be used for state and local initiatives, technical assistance, training, personnel, equipment, supplies, contractual support, and information systems for criminal justice, including for anyone or more of the following program areas: 1) law enforcement pro-
