CDC Extends Order at the Southern and Northern Land Borders

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has issued an order under Sections 362 and 365 of the Public Health Service Act, and associated implementing regulations, that temporarily suspends the introduction of certain noncitizens based on the Director's determination that introduction of such non-citizens, regardless of their country of origin, migrating through Canada and Mexico into the United States creates a serious danger of the introduction of COVID-19 into the United States, and the danger is so increased by the introduction of such noncitizens that a temporary suspension is necessary to protect the public health. Un-accompanied noncitizen children, already excepted under a July 16, 2021 order, remain excepted from the order's coverage.

CDC is continuing to assess the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic at the U.S. borders and ports of entry, looking at the risks of transmission and spread of COVID-19 in congregate settings, such as U.S. Customs and Border Patrol stations, as well as the threat from emerging variants and the availability of testing, vaccination, and other mitigation measures. As the COVID-19 pandemic evolves and our risk assessment changes, CDC will reassess the existing Order. CDC will review the latest information regarding the status of the COVID-19 pandemic and associated public health risks every sixty days to ensure that the Order remains necessary to protect the public health.

This order was issued on August 2, 2021 and shall remain in effect until the CDC

Director determines that the danger of further introduction of COVID-19 into the United States from covered noncitizens has ceased to be a serious danger to the public health, and the Order is no longer necessary to protect the public health. The order replaces the October 13, 2020 order previously issued under this authority.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

CDC works 24/7 protecting America's health, safety and security. Whether disease start at home or abroad, are curable or preventable, chronic or acute, or from human activity or deliberate attack, CDC responds to America's most pressing health threats. Charged

John Stone, 24, Church Street Philadelphia, was charged with DUI, Financial Responsibility, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy Bengel LCSO, responded to Taylor Drive in reference to a Vandalism call. The Complainant, stated that the Offender, John Stone, had hit her neighbor's mailbox and was attempting to flee the scene. Deputy arrived on the scene within a minute of being dispatched and observed Stone in the middle of Taylor Dr. in a Mercury. Stone was in front of Taylor Dr. and was backing up. Deputy activated his emergency blue lights and Stone stopped the car. Deputy walked up the vehicle and Stone was slumped over and having a hard time keeping his up. Stone was sweating and his speech was slurred. Deputy asked Stone out of the vehicle and to consent to SFST. Stone complied and performed poorly on all tests. Stone was so unstable on his feet that he almost fell over multiple times before, during, and after SFTS. Stone was taken into custody for DUI and Deputy read him the TN Implied Consent Advisement, to which he refused. Deputy spoke to a witness and another witness, who were both very adamant that Stone was too intoxicated to drive. Witness stated that she had not seen Stone in about 5 years and that he came into her home in the night without her consent. Witness knows Stone and attempted to feed him and take care of him to get him to sober up. Stone decided to leave the residence and Witness attempted to stop him to no avail. Witness witnessed Stone run over the neighbor's mailbox, make a U-turn in his yard and him attempting to flee the scene. Stone stopped the car and Witness walked up to the car and removed the key from the ignition. Witness stated the car was a manual and that Stone was able to push the car and jumpstart it. Deputy spoke to the neighbor whose mailbox was run over and he witnessed the vandalism as well. The neighbor refused a report and said that he had already made a verbal agreement with witness to fix the mailbox. Deputy was unable to confirm if Mercury had valid insurance. Dispatch advised that Stone did not have a valid driver's license and was ID only. Stone was transported to the Loudon County Jail. While en route to the jail, Stone made a spontaneous utterance and stated that he knew a loophole and would be released when he went to court.

Stone elaborated and stated that since he did not give a blood sample that Deputy couldn't prove what was in his system. Stone is being charged with DUI, Implied Consent, Driving without a Valid Drivers License and Financial responsibility.

Horoscopes

truth, Leo. Your tendency is to assume things before you have all the facts. You may assume the worst, making you more stressed about the situation than you need to be. Don't worry about things you don't know to be true.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

You may feel like you're doomed if you do and doomed if you don't, Virgo. You may feel very opinionated about a certain issue, but you know that expressing yourself is likely to cause someone else to feel threatened or upset. But if you keep these thoughts to yourself, you're going to feel resentful and perhaps even used. You're better off expressing yourself honestly.

Libra 9/23-10/22

You may find yourself bursting into tears for no apparent reason today, Libra. Seek comfort in sitting by a body of water where you can let your emotions flow. Tension builds as the storm draws near. Once it has passed, however, there is calm as the sunshine pierces the clouds. This time of peace and serenity may seem far off, but it's closer than you think.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Unexpected emotions are going to come out of nowhere and cause havoc, Scorpio. Be prepared to deal with the expected. The key is not to overreact. The calmer and more stable you can stay, the better off you'll be. Dealing with the situation in a reactive outburst will only turn the scene into an explosive rage. Count to ten or sit by yourself for a while before you deal with the problem.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You may want more freedom in a certain situation, Sagittarius. Perhaps it's your emotions that you want to distance yourself from, or it feels like someone is smothering you. On the one hand, you long for company and intimacy to fill an inner void. On the other, you resent having to be so needy. Make sure you're whole before you sink too deeply into a relationship.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

You may need to use charm and wit to ease a tense situation, Capricorn. Gridlock could be making you feel uncomfortable. Your solution to the problem is to put on a happy face and divert attention from the difficulty by telling some jokes. Realize that this technique will delay having to face a particular situation for a while, but it certainly won't keep you from ever having to deal with it.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Your emotions are active, Aquarius, and could be popping up in powerful outbursts. There's momentum building within that you shouldn't ignore or suppress. Perhaps you feel that what you have to say isn't appropriate for the situation. More than likely, it will do more harm than good to ignore these feelings rather than get them out, even when it seems disruptive to do so.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You may have a feeling that if you don't have something positive to say, you shouldn't say anything. This idea could keep you tongue-tied today, Pisces. If you're frustrated, angry, or hurt, address the issue openly. Don't feel like you have to be the one who cheers up everyone else. Let someone else have a turn for a change. You're only harming yourself by pretending that everything is OK when it isn't.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Don't skimp when it comes to taking care of your physical health, Aries. In an effort to save money, you may not bother getting dental check-ups, or you could opt for the least expensive doctor in the book. Nothing is more important than your health. Treat your body with the honor and respect it deserves. You may have no trouble doing for others what you know you should be doing for yourself.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Keeping things in balance may be more trouble than it's worth, Taurus, so don't force the issue. Sometimes it's necessary for our personal growth to let the pendulum swing all the way to one side. The more you can let go and accept that everything isn't going to always be peaceful and harmonious, the better able you will be to deal with the sudden emotional turmoil that is bound to arise.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

This is one day when you feel on the edge of either an emotional breakdown or a triumphant epiphany, Gemini. To ensure a positive outcome, don't take yourself too seriously. There's a degree of intensity to the day that's likely to make everyone feel they're wound up like a spring. One careless move could set off disaster. Do what you can to ease the tension rather than add to it.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Just because everyone else is walking on eggshells doesn't mean you need to, Cancer. Your upbeat spirit will be more welcome than usual due to the drama around you. Be careful of falling into the role that you know others want you to play. It's easy to take on the role that's in front of you, but this doesn't always help the situation. Read from your own script, not someone else's.
