Evading

David Bivens, 48, Hawkins Road Sweetwater, was charged with, Evading Arrest, Reckless Driving, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Passing in no Passing Zone, Requirements for Stop Sign, Driving on Roadways Lane for Traffic, Failure to Show Proof of Insurance, Expired Plates, and Display of Registration.

Deputy Davis LCSO, attempted to conduct a traffic stop on a black motorcycle on E Broadway and Pike Street. The reason for the stop was the improper display of registration plates on the motorcycle. The driver of the motorcycle was wearing a black jacket with blue jeans and black boots which matched the clothing description given by the Lenoir City Police Department from an armed robbery that occurred at the La Lapita Mexican Store (510 W Broadway) at 1935 hours. The deputy observed the driver turn his head, observe the deputy activated emergency lights and sirens, and continue to flee. The deputy continued to pursue the motorcycle into Roane County. During the pursuit the deputy observed the vehicle run the stop sign at the intersection of the Dollar General parking lot and Highway 70, weaving within the lane, and pass another vehicle in the no pass zone double yellow portion of Highway 70. The pursuit continued but ended after the motorcycle struck a black sedan at the intersection of Highway 70 and Pinnacle Drive. The driver was taken into custody by THP and later identified as David Bivens who had a suspended license out of Tennessee.

The registration was tucked under the back fender of the motorcycle (KYJIN150). The registration expired on 11/30/2024 and David failed to show proof of insurance for the motorcycle. David was taken to UT Medical Center for further treatment. Warrants have been generated for David Bevin's arrest.

aftermarket vehicle infotainment systems, digital picture frames and other products. Most of the infected devices were manufactured in China. Cyber criminals gain unauthorized access to home networks by either configuring the product with malicious software prior to the users purchase or infecting the device as it downloads required applications that contain backdoors, usually during the set-up process.<sup>3</sup> Once these compromised IoT devices are connected to home networks, the infected devices are susceptible to becoming part of the BADBOX 2.0 botnet and residential proxy services<sup>4</sup> known to be used for malicious activity.

WHAT IS BADBOX 2.0 BOTNET

BADBOX 2.0 was discovered after the original BADBOX campaign was disrupted in 2024. BADBOX was identified in 2023, and primarily consisted of Android operating system devices that were compromised with backdoor malware prior to purchase. BADBOX 2.0, in addition to compromising devices prior to purchase, can also infect devices by requiring the download of malicious apps from unofficial marketplaces. The BADBOX 2.0 botnet consists of millions of infected devices and maintains numerous backdoors to proxy services that cyber criminal actors exploit by either selling or providing free access to compromised home networks to be used for various criminal activity.

INDICATORS

The public is urged to evaluate IoT devices in their home for any indications of compromise and consider disconnecting suspicious devices from their networks. The FBI has identified potential indicators that may assist in detecting malicious devices. An indicator alone does not accurately determine malicious cyber activity or a crime. The following suspicious activities/indicators do not relate to any individual, group, or business and should be observed in context.

Possible indicators of BADBOX 2.0 botnet activity include:

The presence of suspicious marketplaces where apps are downloaded.

Requiring Google Play protect settings to be disabled.

Generic TV streaming devices advertised as unlocked or capable of accessing free content.

IoT devices advertised from unrecognizable brands.

Android devices that are not Play Protect certified.

Unexplained or suspicious Internet traffic.

MITIGATIONS

The following mitigation strategies can be effective steps to minimize exposure to unauthorized residential proxy networks.

Maintaining awareness and monitor Internet traffic of home networks.

Assess all IoT devices connected to home networks for suspicious activity.

Horoscopes

appreciate affectionate words or a colleague who requires instruction, communication will come more easily than usual. You have a practical nature.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Spread goodwill and affection today, Cancer. It's been a while since you let people know that you care about and appreciate them. Cards, phone calls, letters, flowers, and hugs are ways to express your feelings.

Leo 7/23-8/22

If a problem comes your way today, Leo, look for the simplest solution. Not every problem is complicated. Often the most obvious answer is the best one. Try to keep your emotions out of problems that require calculation and thought.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

It's a good day to speak your mind, Virgo. Not that you generally have much trouble with this. But even you can face situations where you feel intimidated and hesitant to speak up. Not today. There aren't going to be any circumstances you can't handle, because the astral energy will boost your abilities.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Expect a boost to your communication skills today, Libra. If you often experience difficulty expressing your true feelings, this will be a welcome change for you. Consider talking things over with anyone you have unresolved issues with.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

If something has been bothering you, Scorpio, today is a good time to work it out. Your excellent communicative ability will be even stronger with today's energy. Whether your problems have to do with a colleague, boss, spouse, friend, or relative, you will find the words to effectively communicate your thoughts and feelings.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You can be quiet and reclusive when it comes to expressing feelings, Sagittarius. Today may be the exception. The aspects can bring real strength to your communication abilities. You'd be able to seize the opportunity.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

When did you last spend real quality time with your family - not counting regular chores? If it's been a while, today is a good day to do it. If you have children, play with them or go to the park or zoo. If you're single, consider visiting a parent or sibling.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

How do you preserve your family history, Aquarius? Do you keep mementos in a box, display heirlooms, or make scrapbooks? You most likely realize the value of family history, but you might not preserve it as well as you should. Take steps to record and save precious items and memories from parents, grandparents, siblings, and others.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Overdue apologies can be made today, Pisces. It isn't easy to admit you're wrong, but the planetary aspects can boost your courage. Rather than stew with regret, meet with the person to make amends.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Your dreams are more than just random firings of neurons, Aries. They can indicate unresolved issues, stress, deep desires, and lost memories. They can prove instrumental to understanding yourself and solving problems.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

If you've been tired lately, Taurus, it may be due to stress. Today's aspects bring an added energy to communication. It would be wise to talk about some of the stress. Worry, anxiety, and fear are huge drains on physical and emotional health.
